FCT Police urge family of hit-and-run victim to come for body

on October 07, 2014 / in News 9:58 pm / Comments

The Police in Abuja yesterday appealed to families looking for their loved ones to come over to Durumi Divisional police station in FCT metropolis to identify the body of a hit-and-run victim that had been with them since October 2.

According to the Police, the victim, aged around 50 years, was hit by a vehicle under Apo Bridge, close to the legislators' quarters around 1p.m., and that the driver of the vehicle fled the scene.

The police said the deceased was clad in white native attire at the time of the accident and was lying in the mortuary in the same outfit.

They called on families looking for their loved ones to interface with the division and collect his body for burial.
