PORT HARCOURT—TWO robbers were shot dead yesterday, while other members of the gang sustained gunshot wounds as Police foiled a major bank robbery in Port Harcourt.

Spokesman of Rivers State Police Command, DSP Ahmad Muhammad, said N15.6 million was recovered from the robbers during the operation, adding that the Police also arrested five suspected kidnappers when they rescued a kidnapped victim, Mr. Daniel Opiyo.

He said: "Money to the tune of N15.6 million, one AK-47 rifle, one Beretta pistol, two toy guns and their operation vehicle, saloon Golf car, were recovered."

Also, N300,000 was recovered from the kidnappers, being part payment of the N3 million ransom they demanded.
