By Ifeanyi Okolie

Tragedy struck Ajangbadi area of Lagos, weekend, as a 24-year-old woman was crushed in a crash in involving a tricycle and a motorbike along Era Road.

The victim, who was identified simply as Chinwe, was said to have met her untimely death when the motorbike she rode in on her way to work, ran into a tricycle, also known as Keke Napep.

Eyewitness disclosed that the accident which occurred around 8:am on Saturday, was caused by vehicles parked in front of Ilogbo Police Post, Ajangbadi.

An eyewitness, who gave his identities as Charles Adesuwa, said the rider of the motorbike was on high speed and could not, therefore, see the tricycle as vehicles parked in front of the police post blocked his view.

He explained: "The Keke rider was trying to make a turn and the okada rider coming from Era did not see him because of the big vehicles parked on the road in front of the police post.
