

News

52-yr-old man found dead in his Abakaliki office

By Peter Okutu

ABAKALIKI—IT was a sad episode for the family of Egbara last Saturday, following the sudden death of their son, Mr. Dominic Egbara, in his Abakaliki office.

The deceased was said to have gone to work on Friday, but did not return.

It was the following day, Saturday, that his brother, Alphonsus Egbara, found him lying lifeless on the floor of his office.

The deceased was an Orthopaedic Plastic Technician at the Federal Teaching Hospital, Abakaliki, FETHA, and was Chairman, Staff Welfare Association of the hospital.

Ebonyi State Police Public Relations Officer, Chris Anyanwu, said he was aware of the incident, but added that investigations were still ongoing to ascertain the circumstances that led to his death.

However, a source claimed that the deceased was killed and dumped in his office.