UGHELLI—A family of three and one other were weekend feared dead as a Toyota car in which they were travelling rammed into a petrol tanker along Ughelli axis of the East West road in Delta State.

The victims comprised a lady and her two infant children and another male passenger, while three others sustained serious injuries.

According to witnesses at the scene of the accident, which was said to have occurred at about 4:15pm, the Toyota car with registration number SPP882XG, was heading from Yenagoa to Warri when it rammed into the petrol tanker with registration number XB313ER, while it (tanker) was trying to make a U-turn along the road.

However, three other occupants of the Toyota car survived the accident with various life threatening injuries and are currently receiving medical attention at one of the private hospitals in Ughelli.
