

ould no longer cals

hit the market in which over 70 people, mostly traders, were killed and about 98 sustained serious injuries.

In the attack on Lassa village in Askira/Uba local government area of Borno State, 11 residents died while churches and houses were burnt.

Sources said vigilante youths in the village confronted the attackers, leading to the killing of 41 suspected Boko Haram members while 17 were captured.

Confirming the Damaturu incident, the Yobe Police Commissioner, Markus Danladi, said soldiers and policemen repelled the insurgents with ca-at police and tions as well as es, a situation people dead.

"The police Damaturu wa curity format under attack a insurgents".

Another res Usmanu Iliya talking to you explosions in part of the city fleeing."

He claimed woken up by blasts at about pected Boko attacking.