

in Nigerian political system in 2018."

Irate mob set 2 ablaze for stealing in Enugu

BY FRANCIS IGATA, ENUGU

TWO middle aged youths were at the early hours of yesterday, set ablaze by an irate mob over an alleged theft along the rail line, behind Ogbete main market, Enugu.

According to Police Public Relations Officer, PPRO, Mr. Ebere Amaraizu, DSP, "operatives of the Central Police station arrived the scene of the incident following a distress call.

"Before they got there, the angry mob had set the two boys ablaze. The injuries they sustained as a result were very severe. They had to rush them to a nearby hospital where they were confirmed dead by doctors on duty.

"A full scale investigation into the incident has commenced. We are appealing to members of the public not to engage in jungle justice. The security agencies are there to protect lives and property.

Ugwuanyi remains candidate to beat in Enugu guber election

— Support Groups

NO less than 100 support groups with more than five hundred thousand members took to the streets of Enugu at the weekend to demonstrate their support for the governorship candidate of the Peoples Democratic Party (PDP), Hon. Ifeanyi Ugwuanyi.

The supporters expressed the hope that despite "minor" opposition to Ugwuanyi's candidature he remains the candidate to beat and would triumph in the end.