A unidentified lady was crushed to death on Monday when a fuel tanker fell at Bogije end of the Lekki-Epe Expressway, Ibeju-Lekki Local Government Area of Lagos
State.

Director of the Lagos State Fire Service, Mr. Rasak Fadipe, who confirmed the incident, said: "The fuel tanker lost control and fell on the young lady, who was standing by the road. The truck smashed her head and she died instantly."

He noted that the corpse was handed over to the Police.

Fadipe added that 15 fire disasters were recorded on Monday alone.
