There was pandemonium, yesterday, at Ajegunle area of Lagos State, as supporters of All Progressives Congress, APC, clashed with those of Peoples Democratic Party, PDP, leaving three people dead, with 20 injured.

Vanguard gathered that the crisis started around 3pm when the party supporters accosted themselves at Ayetoro area of Ajegunle during campaign rallies, leading to a fight.

An eyewitness, who spoke with Vanguard, blamed the fights, which quickly spread to Boundary Bus Stop, on some APC supporters who were quarrelling over money given to them by one of the party candidates.

The eyewitness said: “The fight started when party supporters were sharing money given them by an aspirant.

“Unfortunately some PDP supporters met them at Ayetoro and APC supporters attacked them.”
