

23-yr-old stabbed to death by friend

By Esther Onyegbula

OPERATIVES of Lagos State Criminal Investigation Department, SCID, are currently investigating the murder of 23-year-old Joshua Oni, who was reportedly stabbed to death by his friend, identified as Aniefiok Umanha, alias Caribbean, in Maza-Maza area of Lagos.

The victim, who is from Osun State, was on his way to buy food stuff for dinner, when an argument ensued between him and his friend.

Vanguard learned that the argument degenerated into a fight, with Aniefok stabbing the former on the neck with a knife.

Vanguard gathered that operatives of the homicide unit of SCID are making efforts to fish out the suspect, currently at large, to face the law.
