BENIN CITY—A Youth leader of the All Progressives Congress, APC, was weekend clubbed to death and his body set ablaze by thugs alleged to be loyal to the opposition Peoples Democratic Party at Ikpoba Okha Local Government Area of Edo State.

The youth leader, Igie

Osayande, was said to have met his untimely death when thugs, allegedly led by one Osamede, invaded Ward 9, Units 9, 10 and 11 at Obagienevbosa, off Sapele Road, in Ikpoba Okha Local Government Area.

According to the APC agent in Ward Unit 11, Mr Sunny Osagiede, trouble started when the said Osamede, who according to him, is not from the community, stormed the area with thugs demanding to be accredited long after accreditation had closed and voting had commenced.

Osagiede said: "Osamede's efforts to get accreditation were rebuffed by the Presiding Officer who told him that voting had already commenced. He was then prevailed upon by the policeman on duty at the unit to leave the area."

He added that the crisis escalated when the said Osamede received a call later from the PDP and SDP agents in the ward that the PDP was losing.

"He returned to the ward after the calls with his boys and scattered the
