

snatching ballot boxes.

Anyaele, who urged the Independent National Electoral Commission, INEC, to redeploy

Enugu State, the Legal Aids and Self Development Initiative, LASEDI, an observer group, yesterday, assembly elections in Enugu State, said that during the polls, it observed that accreditation started early

Oshimili North LG stakeholders petition IG over thuggery, killing

STAKEHOLDERS and other prominent personalities of Oshimili North Local Government Area of Delta State have cried out to the Inspector-General of Police, IGP, to urgently bring to book all those involved in thuggery perpetrated in the residence of a popular indigene of Ibusa and husband of a politician (names withheld), which eventually led to the death of one Emeka, employed by Tony Azuya, All Progressives Grand Alliance, APGA, House of Assembly candidate in April 11 poll.

At an enlarged meeting, the heads and people of Ibusa condemned in strong terms the alleged continuous threat to lives of the citizens by the popular indigene, his wife and their cohorts, including a former council chairman and a serving councillor.

PEOPLE SPEAK

