Enugu—Enugu State Police Command is currently investigating the case of a man, who was said to have hacked his father to death at Umuania Umuogboagu in Igboeze North Local Government Area of the state.

The command is also investigating the case of another man, who allegedly beat his mother to death.

State Police Public Relations Officer, Ebere Amaraizu, who disclosed these in a statement in Enugu yesterday, said: “It was gathered that the suspect, identified as Chijioke Onyeke, on April 26 at about 6.30pm, allegedly cut his father in the head with a machete over a yet to be ascertained issue that arose between them.

“It was further gathered that the deceased was rushed to St. Mary’s Hospital, Ogurute, where he was confirmed dead.

“The dead body of the deceased is now deposited at General Hospital Mortuary, Ogurute, Enugu Ezike, for autopsy, while the suspect, having been arrested, is helping the operatives in their investigations.”

Beaten to death

Amaraizu said: “Another suspect, identified as Chidi Agbo of Ette Centre in Igboeze North Local Government Area of Enugu State, has been arrested by the state command operatives for allegedly beating his mother to death over an unidentified reason.

“It was gathered that the deceased, identified as Virginia Agbo, died on April 27 in the hands of her son, who allegedly beat her over a yet to be established issue, leading to her death. Her lifeless body was found on the bed.

“The suspect is helping the police in their investigations, while the deceased is now deposited at the General Hospital Mortuary at Ogurute, Enugu Ezike, Enugu State.”
