

Nigeria, ICAN, Mr. Emmanuel NNorom, induction ceremony of proves 50, rs

that explore whether a strategy, treatment, or is safe and effective for osing this, yesterday, in during 3rd Nigerian Clinical Trial Summit with ne: 'Advancing Global Trials in the West African on,' the Director-General agency, Dr. Paul Orhii, disclosed that it has ated a 30-man Clinical nical Working Group with to strengthening its y capacity in clinical trial as broaden access of s to new drugs.

ing to him, Nigeria can r afford to continue to be ayer within the clinical community. He said the he Agency is to make clinical trial destination e world.

g out the benefits of research to the nent of the health sector e patients, Orhii urged s not to see participants research as scapegoats a way of contributing to ence of prevention, es and treatment of report showed a sharp reduction at 400 barrel per day as against 2.4 million barrel five months ago.

DELTA HOUSE POLL MURDER: Ibusa wants elite's action

IBUSA—THE Leadership of Ibusa Community Development Union, ICDU, an apex body of all indigenes of Ibusa at home and in Diaspora, has called on some of its prominent sons and daughters, to use their positions and find out from the police authorities what is holding the arrest and prosecution of all those fingered in the snatching of ballot boxes and murder of one Emeka Onianwa and injuries meted on some youths at the just held House of Assembly election in the community.

The elite include the immediate past Chief of Naval Staff, Rear Admiral Ezeoba (rtd), Chief Peter Okocha, Prof. Pat Utomi, Mrs. Akpan and the former adviser to the former President Goodluck Jonathan, Prof. Nwanze Okidegbe and others.

Speaking in an interview with newsmen, spokesman of ICDU worldwide, Mr. Patrick Agetue on behalf of the community expressed dismay over the delay in bringing the culprits to book.

Agetue recalled that in 2007, 2011 and 2015 when the incumbent member representing the area princess, Pat Ajudua contested the House of Assembly election, the community witnessed wanton destruction of property, death of Livy Ajufo Mavis Onyeka Achuzia and Chiazor Nwadei and recently Emeka Onianwa while some youths who sustained severe injuries melted on them by the thugs hired by some politicians "are till date lying ill in the hospital."