3 Cultists kill one in Ughelli

By Perez Brisibe

UGHELLI—THERE was palpable tension and fear of reprisal attacks at Ughelli metropolis in Delta State, Sunday evening, as suspected cultists stabbed and shot to death a suspected member of a rival gang.

An eyewitnesses said the victim resided at the Pipeline area of Ughelli and was attacked along Omosivwe Street when 10 assailants stabbed and shot him several times, while he laid unconscious on the ground.

Members of the victim's gang began to search for his killers at different drinking spots.

A police source said the command, in collaboration with other security agents in the area, was doing its best to bring the perpetrators to book.
