

1D/3211/94 in our client's favour, subsequently the office of the Deputy Sheriff, Ikeja High Court, Lagos State, did levy the execution.

Police kill bus driver in PH

By Abdulwahab Abdullah

A commercial bus driver was shot dead yesterday around Whimpy junction, Obio Akpor local government area by a Policeman. Vanguard also gathered that one other person was hit by stray bullet. Eye witnesses told the Vanguard that the Policeman ordered the driver to park and the next thing they heard was a gunshot.

The incident triggered a protest as youths in the area immediately besieged the Kala Police station.

The protest caused a major traffic gridlock as motorists were stranded for several hours.

At press time more Police men had been deployed to the area. And they were firing canisters of tear gas to clear the road for movement of traffic.

the area of maternal health care giving initiatives in the area have added to the state just as he commended the Abiye safe motherhood programme of the administration which he noted has