

missing, adding that it had Vanguard gathered that the his call nor reply the message sent crisis across the local government areas in the state.

Octogenarian dies in kerosine blast

By Egufe Yafugborhi

WARRI—YET another case of kerosine explosion in Delta State yesterday killed Madam Titi Takerhi, an octogenarian, at Eyara, Ughelli South local government area.

The victim died after fruitless efforts to save her life at a private health center in neighboring Okwagbe.

Chief Solomon Koyor, a community leader who spoke to Vanguard on the incident, said the octogenarian was filling a lantern with suspected adulterated kerosine when it exploded in flames all over her.

Cleric escapes from kidnappers' den after 132 days

By Perez Brisibe

Vanguard, a senior member of Ughelli vigilante, popularly that the pastor while in captivity, noticed that the two persons capitalized on it and escaped into the village where he raised an