JOS—A middle aged man, Gordian Okoli, was yesterday shot dead around Mallam Kure Street, Fatima Catholic Church Junction, Jos, Plateau State, at 9a.m.

Police have arrested four of the deceased's workers.

Okoli, said to be a dealer in frozen foods, was allegedly shot dead by a gang of armed robbers, whose activities have raised concerns around Katakò Market neighbourhood of Jos North Local Government.

The robbers were said to have invaded the businessman's shop in a tricycle and demanded from him the proceeds of the sales he made over the weekend, said to be about N3.5 million.

He was said to have been shot and bled to death.
