Troops kill 4 Boko Haram terrorists

By Kingsley Omonobi

A B U J A — I N continuation of the fight against Boko Haram terrorists, Nigerian troops from 243 Battalion under 5 Brigade Nigerian Army on patrol, Sunday, engaged some terrorists in a fierce battle, killing four as others escaped.

The terrorists, who descended on a primary school at Duwabafi village, Borno State, armed with AK 47 rifles, also converted a part of the school to their logistic materials' base.

A statement signed by Colonel Sani Usman, Acting Director, Army Public Relations, said the soldiers who were on fighting patrol to rid elements of the terrorists from their camps, encountered the suspected elements holed up at the Primary School at Duwabafi village, Borno State, on Sunday.

He said: "There was heavy exchange of gunfire in which the patrol killed four suspected Boko Haram terrorists, recovered two AK-47 rifles, four various sizes of solar energy panels, several types of drugs and five motorcycles."
