

POWER PROTEST: The Joint CDA Youth Forum on a peaceful protest against Ikeja Electricity Company on epileptic power supply and billings in Igando, Alimosho Local Government Area, Lagos State, yesterday. PHOTO: Bunmi Azeez.

Gunmen kill Okadaman in Ughelli, abscond with motorcycle

By Perez Brisibe

UGHELLI—SUSPECTED armed robbers, in the early hours of yesterday, shot dead a commercial motorcycle operator, popularly known as Okada, and absconded with his machine.

The incident, it was gathered, occurred at about 6a.m., a few meters from Ughelli yard of Setraco Construction Company, along Ughelli axis of the East-West Road.

When Vanguard visited the scene of the incident at about 2p.m., the remains of the victim were still at the scene of the incident hours after he was shot dead.

Though the identity of the Okadamán, who appears to be in his early 40s, could not be ascertained at press time, sympathizers identified him as a father of four, whose Okada was given to him on a hire-purchase basis.