killings in 2012, as a teenager was shot dead by a policeman on October 2.

In addition, a commercial driver was also shot by a police corporal attached to a new generation bank in Uruagu, Anambra State, on November 9. Reports said that the deceased was shot because he wrongly parked in front of the bank to pick a passenger.

In Yobe State, a policeman, said to have been drunk, had in August 2012 shot at the convoy of the then Deputy Governor, Abubakar Aliyu.
Fortunately, no life was lost in this case. But same could not be said in the case of 20-year-old Lucy Ukpung, a salesgirl who was reportedly hit in the chest by a bullet from a police corporal said to have gone to monitor a demolition exercise in Apo area, Abuja, on October 16, 2012, as she died right on
