SAPELE—A 17-year-old son of a pastor has allegedly killed a 14-year-old girl after raping her, while her nine-year-old sister escaped with wounds inflicted on her by the suspect at Sapele, Sapele Local Government Area, Delta State.

The incident occurred at Oduduru Road, Sapele, same street where a kidnap gang shot dead a young pastor, Great Oduduru, last week.

The kidnappers were said to have trailed a businessperson to the area.

A source said worshipers at the suspect's father's church were shocked at the conduct of his son, which they described as unbecoming of cleric's son. .
