

Clement Abanara, alias Million.

5 killed in renewed Benin cult clash

By Simon
Ebegbulem

BENIN—NO fewer than five persons have died in a renewed cult war between the Neo Black Movement (A.K.A. Aye) and Mafite confraternities in Benin, Edo State.

Vanguard learned that trouble started at New Benin area after a member of one of the groups was hacked to death by a member of the rival group. There was a reprisal attack, spreading the violence to Lucky Way axis.

Four persons were confirmed dead in those areas as Vanguard gathered that a crack team of detectives are in search the operatives trailed Million's wife to Warri Delta State, where she was arrested before taking the police to Benin, where her husband was arrested in a rented apartment.

of the perpetrators, following an order by the state Commissioner of Police, Chris Ezike.

When contacted, the state police spokesman, DSP Osifo Onwochei, said the command is taking serious measures to curtail the situation, but could not confirm the number of deaths.