KANO—Kano Lebanese community was thrown into mourning yesterday, following the death of its senior citizen fondly called Baba at his fortified residence located at Unity Road, Kano Central Business District.

The Commissioner of Police, Muhammad Katsina, told Vanguard on phone that the deceased 67 was slaughtered by his 'close associate' in his apartment, Monday night.

The local police boss noted that four suspects had been arrested in connection with the gruesome murder, adding "they have offered vital information to us."

He refused to volunteer the name of the deceased because of security implication, saying "details of the crime would be made known to public in due course."
