

powerful native doctor, popularly called 'Dibia' behind what appeared to be his great powers. It was gathered that the 'Juju' man was actually the one the pastor got his powers from and never performed any God-ordained miracle.

Murderous pastors

During the Christmas season of 2015, the pastor and general overseer of a church in Uyo, Akwa Ibom State was arrested for killing his church member. A respected man of God and Founder/General Overseer of God's Power City Church, Pastor Gideon Idio was arrested by the State Police Command for allegedly murdering a female church member, Joanna Okon, during an altercation that occurred in his office. It was gathered that Pastor Idio had invited the deceased to his office for an undisclosed assignment which later turned violent and he allegedly strangled her to death.

Fake pastors and the Rev. King fate

It will be recalled that convicted General Overseer of the Christian Praying Assembly, Chukwuemeka Ezeugo a.k.a. Rev. King, had taken his case up to the Supreme Court to challenge his death sentence. However, on Friday, February 26 the apex court okayed the death sentence by hanging. His crime was the murder of a church member, Ann Uzoh.

Though some of the victims of these condemnable pastors have had their day in court, there are still many of these pastors out there committing all these atrocities in the name of the Lord. So, what becomes of them? Like Rev. King, they may get their lawful payment some day soon, the Rev. King way.
