13 killed in Taraba herdsmen reprisal attack

ON APRIL 24, 2016 11:19 AM / IN NEWS / COMMENTSBy John Mkom, *Jalingo

No fewer than 13 persons may have been killed as herdsmen and farmers clashed in Taraba State even as farmers in about three local government areas were chased out of their villages and are currently taking refuge in Dan-Anacha market in Gasol local government area of the state.

The crisis was ignited when two herdsmen were reportedly killed, last Tuesday, by armed robbers along Kyaior-Gyo Road.

Sunday Vanguard gathered that when the report of the killing of the herdsmen reached town, some gunmen rushed to the area, attacked and chased out farmers at Kyaaior, Gindin Kerenya and Tse Gyo villages, leaving

A woman abducted by the herdsmen revealed that her abductors were armed with sophisticated weapons.

The chief of Tiv people of Bali local government, David Gbaa, disclosed that his people ran to take refuge at Dan-Anacha during the attack.

Gbaa also confirmed that the attackers were still operating as of the time of filing this report at Bornu Kurkuru of Bali local government area.
