One killed, houses razed as cultists clash in Delta

By Ochuko Akuopha

USHIE community, Ndokwa East Local Government Area, Delta State, was, Monday night, thrown into confusion as one person was killed and three houses razed in a violent clash between members of suspected rival cult groups.

The clash, it was gathered, was due to a lingering matter between some of the community's youths.

A source in the community told Vanguard that those involved in the fight were cultists, adding "the quarrel began at a burial ceremony in the community last Friday."
