Deadly Kogi Amala Meal: 6 more hospitalised

MORE revelations emerged, yesterday, over the death of six persons that took cassava flour meal in Ogaminana, Kogi State, as six other persons were hospitalised after the meal.

This came as the state governor, Alhaji Yahaya Bello, condemned the ethnic slant being given to the incident that claimed the lives of a woman, her three sons and two of their neighbours.

Top police source in Adavi Divisional headquarters in Okene, said on condition of anonymity that three of those hospitalised had been referred to the Federal Medical Centre, FMC, Lokoja on the order of the state governor.

The Commissioner for Health, Dr. Saka Haruna, was said to have taken the samples of the flour for laboratory analysis.
