OBIARUKU—THE decomposing body of a 30-year-old man, suspected to have been killed by unknown assailants was, Monday, found in a farmland in Amai community, Ukwani Local Government Area, Delta State.

A source in Amai Umuekun disclosed that the body was discovered by an elderly woman in her farmland, who raised alarm and elders of the community immediately reported the matter at Obiaruku police station.

Confirming the incident yesterday, the state Police Public Relations Officer, Mr. Andrew Aniamaka, said there was evidence that a motorcycle was used in taking the body to the farmland, noting that the deceased was about 30 years of age.
