

An eyewitness told Saturday Vanguard that Emmanuel Eshiet an indigene of Akwa Ibom state was shot dead at about 6: 20 pm yesterday at a car wash at Ewa Ekeng Street in Calabar South.

“The boys who shot him stormed the car wash in a tricycle and opened fire on him, after they shot him, they also shot in the air to scare people away and he died on the spot”

“ I believe nemesis has caught up with him because he killed his wife four years ago with a pestle and boasted that nothing would happen to him but today God has shown him who is more superior ,no crime shall go unpunished” the source said.
