

Herdsman attack: Police discover remains of missing colleague

ON FEBRUARY 20, 2017 12:31 AMIN NEWSCOMMENTS

By Perez Brisibe

UGHELLI—The corpse of the second police officer declared missing after a clash with herdsman at Ohoro community, Delta State, 12 days ago, has been discovered.

The discovery of the remains came on the day his colleague, an Inspector, who was also killed, was being buried at Uromi, Edo State.

Confirming the discovering to Vanguard yesterday, a member of the Ohoro community executive, disclosed that the corpse of the security operative was discovered at Breserhe, a community close to Agadama.

Herdsman with their cattle

He said: “The corpse was discovered by a member of the community, who contacted the Agadama community chairman that informed the DPO of Ughelli ‘A’ Division.