For over a month, the gangsters have been terrorising motorists plying the road, attracting public outcry.

Vanguard gathered that soldiers manning a checkpoint in Igbara-Oke stormed the robbery scene, following a distress call by motorists.

One of the robbers was gunned down, while five others, who sustained injuries, fled into the bush.

Contacted, the Assistant Director of Public Relations of the Artillery Brigade, Captain Ojo Adelegan, confirmed the incident.
