

the hospital for medical attention.

The Obada incident, which involved a Toyota Camry with number plates JJJ 43 XJ, was said to have claimed the life of one person.

The vehicle with three occupants, including the driver, were said to have rammed into a stationary truck, killing one of the occupants, while two others were critically injured.

Officials of TRACE and policemen moved to the scene for rescue operation, and the wreckage taken to Ibara Police Division.

