The killing is coming just as residents of Ughelli and environs have continued to raise concerns over what they referred to as the upsurge of crimes in the area.

A neighbour said they heard the victim screaming for help at his Akunugbe residence off Akpodiete Street.

A senior police officer at the Ughelli Area Command said: "Investigation into the incident is ongoing, but we are treating the matter as murder, because nothing was taken from the victim's apartment."
