In Benue: Police nab Gana's deputy, lost offic

By Peter Duru

MAKURDI—A Police officer (names withheld), has been killed at Abaji in Katsina/Ala Local Government Area of Benue State by gang members of the wanted militant leader, Terwase Agwaza, also known as Gana, in an operation that led to the arrest of Bishop, Gana's Second-in-Command.

Confirming the development to Vanguard in Makurdi, the state's Police Commissioner, Mr. Bashir Makama, said following the manhunt for the wanted militant leader, Police had moved into Abaji to follow up on information of a planned assassination and kidnap of selected persons in the area by the gang when they were attacked after they arrested Bishop.

Makama said: "You know that we are on a massive manhunt for the wanted Gana. In the course of the operation, last Saturday we arrested his very close ally known as Bishop at
