The notorious cultists group, known as Badoo, which terrorised the Ikorodu area of Lagos for long has reportedly struck in Ogun State, killing two lovers at Hassan Abiodun street, Ojodu area of Ifo local government.

File: 37 suspects, including five suspected Badoo members, being paraded by Ogun State Commissioner of Police, Ahmed Iliyasu, at the state police command headquarters, Eleweran, Abeokuta, yesterday. Photo: Daud Olatunji.

According to eye witnesses' account, the lovers identified as Ifedayo Kolawole, 20, and her heartthrob simply identified as Bode, 30, were both murdered in their sleep in Ifedayo's one-room apartment.

Saturday Vanguard gathered that when Ifedayo's co-tenant and relation, Mrs Akinyemi noticed that the love birds had not been seen for the day, she banged at their door but there was no response. She then decided to peep through the window and was speechless when she saw their lifeless bodies on the bed.

The assailants were said to have accessed the room by removing the window net and louvres while a blood stained grinding stone was found beside their bodies.

It was gathered that the couple had fixed date for their wedding before their untimely death.

Ifedayo was said to be a native of Ekiti State while Dayo hailed from Abeokuta, Ogun State
