

... another electrocuted

By Joseph Undu

A teenager has been electrocuted while trying to reconnect light that has been disconnected over non-payment of electricity bills by the Enugu Electricity Distributions Company.

The victim, who lived on Deeper Life Road, Agbani Nkanu West Local Government Area of Enugu State, was said to have gone to Agbani to reconnect the light when the incident occurred on September 25.

Confirming the story, Enugu State Police spokesman, Ebere Amaraizu, told Vanguard that the body has been deposited at Agbani General Hospital.
