

Eight die, nine injured in Sagamu/Benin road crash

ON DECEMBER 10, 2017 3:19 AMIN NEWSCOMMENTS

By Bose Adeaja

Eight persons were feared dead while nine others were injured, yesterday, on Sagamu/Benin Expressway when an articulated truck collided with a commercial bus.

Scene of the accident, yesterday.

The incident occurred at about 4am at Olorunpodo junction, inbound J4.

The accident was blamed on reckless driving of the truck driver who was alleged to be driving against traffic and rammed into the bus carrying 23 passengers.

Six males, including the bus driver, and two females were feared dead while nine others were injured and taken to a hospital at J4 for medical attention.

The bodies of the victims were reportedly deposited at Ijebu -Ode General Hospital morgue after a rescue operation jointly carried out by men of the Federal Road Safety Corps, FRSC, Ogun State Traffic Compliance and Enforcement Corps, TRACE, and the police.

TRACE image maker, Babatunde Akinbiyi, confirmed the accident.