

baby, whose heart was put in a basin and handed over to him.

Meanwhile, the Fellowship of Nigeria, PFN, Anthony Obo."

Driver crushes FRSC official dead in Onitsha

By Nwabueze Okonkwo

2 ONITSHA—A commercial bus driver, who was identified by the Police as Okonkwo, is now cooling off in their custody at the Fegge Divisional Headquarters, Onitsha, Anambra State, for allegedly crushing an official of the Federal Road Safety Commission, FRSC, to death.

Obiekezie, who was driving a Toyota Hiace with number plates ATN 466 ZK, lost control of his vehicle and allegedly knocked down the 32-year old FRSC official on duty, who was identified as Ojukwu Noble.

According to the source, the incident occurred at the foot of the Niger Bridge.

Efforts to revive Ojukwu at the nearby Toronto Hospital, Onitsha, proved abortive as the medical experts confirmed him dead few hours after he was rushed there.

Confirming the incident, the Divisional Police Officer, Fegge, Superintendent

Rabiu Garba, said the driver would soon be charged to court for manslaughter.

Garba disclosed that the driver was detained at the station, while his vehicle was taken to the premises of Onitsha Unit Command of FRSC.

Cash-laden bullion v

By Evelyn Usman

LAGOS—A bullion van loaded with an unspecified amount of money went up in flames yesterday, under the Ojota Bridge, Lagos.

Report said the van was driving inward the toll gate, apparently to disburse the money in some banks when the incident happened.

The exact cause of the fire, which started at about 2.30p.m., could not be immediately ascertained.

An eyewitness, Mrs Moji Maitani, said: "I was driving home when all of a sudden, the