

Lagos Police kill robber in gun battle

By Esther
Onyegbula

FOUR robbers, operating within Lagos and Ogun states, have met their end during a failed operation in a restaurant located in Egbeda area of Lagos.

The gang met their Waterloo after they invaded One Love restaurant, robbing customers and the management.

When the Divisional Police Officer, SP Fayomi Solomon, got wind of their operation, he mobilised his men and they raced to the scene.

Vanguard gathered that a gun battle ensued between the Police and robbers. Two of the robbers were captured alive, before one died due to gunshot injuries.

It was learned that the Police recovered a gun and a stolen vehicle which they kept same as exhibit.

When Vanguard visited the Idimu Police Division, the DPO was not around for comment, but Police sources confirmed the incident.

However, at SARS office in Ikeja, the suspect, identified as Opasa, was seen undergoing interrogation.

It was gathered that revelations made by Opasa has led to the arrest of two other suspected robbers.