

3

Scores dead, injured in fresh bombing

MAIDUGURI, the capital of Borno State, yesterday, witnessed another suicide bombing, the first in the year, as a suspected female bomber reportedly sneaked into Muna Garage in the outskirts of the city with Improvised Explosive Devices, IEDs, strapped to her body.

It was gathered that the explosives, which was detonated around 3.30p.m., killed scores of people with many injured.