

Five killed as herdsmen waylay, open fire on unsuspecting victims in Benue

ON MARCH 26, 2018 6:44 PM IN NEWSCOMMENTS

BY PETER DURU

MAKURDI – Five persons were at the weekend reportedly killed in two separate attacks on Tse-Semaka and Olegobiudu villages in Guma and Agatu local government areas of Benue state respectively by suspected herdsmen, including a herdsman at the Lower Benue area of Makurdi town.

Vanguard gathered from a source who craved anonymity in the Agatu that the victims were killed while taking their bath in a stream.

The source said, “the incident occurred on Sunday, afternoon when seven boys went to take their bath at the stream in the community.