ONITSHA— ANAMBRA State House of Assembly has called on Governors Willie Obiano and Ifeanyi Ugwuanyi of Anambra and Enugu States respectively to direct the security agents in their respective states to swing into action and fish out the killers of one Chinedu Nzeagwu.

Chief Willie Obiano

Speaking on a motion of public importance, Hon. Chugbo Enwezor representing Onitsha Constituency said the deceased who hailed from Ogbeta village, Onitsha was murdered in cold blood last week in Enugu State by unknown assassins.

According to him, Nzeagwu had come from Abuja for the father's burial only to be killed by assassins before the father's burial.

"The young man had left his family house at Trans-Ekulu, Enugu in his car to go and pick some items. On alighting from his car, some unidentified gunmen grabbed him, tied his hands and legs and killed him with heavy planks.

"I urge Governor Willie Obiano and his Enugu counterpart to move into action to direct the security agents in their states to carry out a proper investigation and ensure that the suspects were unmasked."
