New born stabbed dead, dumped in Onitsha drainage

ON JULY 20, 2018 5:36 AM / IN CRIME GUARD, NEWS / 3 COMMENTS

By Emeka Odogwu

It was an awful sight at Upper Iweka area of Onitsha, Anambra State, yesterday, when a cart pusher brought out a new born baby that had been stabbed to death, wrapped in a black polythene bag and dumped in the drainage along Enugu/Onitsha Expressway by Romchi Park.

Knife stab

Passers-by, hawkers, traders, commuters and drivers who gathered to have a glance at the dead baby, rained curses on the unknown perpetrator of the act.

Mr. Ejike Omeke, who works at a park along the axis, said he was working when a cart pusher alerted him that the content in the nylon was a baby.

He said the cart pusher went into the drainage and brought out the nylon for them to examine the baby, who was already dead and discovered to have been stabbed in the side of his stomach.
