The union expressed shock over the death of Akpojevughe popularly known as Awo, who was shot at close range on August 16, 2018 and was left in the pool of his blood by yet to be identified gunmen.

NUPENG, in a statement by its President, Prince Williams Apkoreha, demanded an independent investigation into Akpojevughe's death and urged the Police to

The statement said: “As a union that believes in the sanctity of life, we deeply condemn this heinous, callous, unfortunate and dastardly act and therefore, call on the Nigeria Police Force, particularly the Delta State Command, to fish out Akpojevuwughe’s killers and make them face the full weight of the law with immediate effect.
