

Couple, three others nabbed with 11 human skulls, other parts in Ilorin

By Demola Akinyemi

THREE fresh human skulls, eight dry ones, several suspected human bones, a bunch of human hairs and other items were yesterday morning recovered from a suspected ritualist's house in Ilorin by detectives of Kwara State police command.

Five suspects including a couple, Mr Azeez Yakub and Mrs Salina Azeez, three others -Isah Wasiu, Abubakar Isiaka and Soliu Yakub have been arrested in connection with the human parts.

Kwara State Commissioner of Police, Mr Fafowora Bolaji disclosed this at a press conference, last night at the police headquarters, in Ilorin.

According to the police commissioner, "Acting on intelligence available to the command about suspected ritual killings around Adewole area of Ilorin by some ritualists, detectives from the police command swooped on a building located at 20 Ole-Opa area of Aromaradu, Adewole Ilorin, and one Yakubu Azeez and four others were rounded up. A search warrant was conducted in the building, 11 human skulls, several suspected human bones, a bunch of suspected human hair and other items were recovered.

"Investigation into the matter is ongoing, suspects will be charged to court after the conclusion of the investigation," he said.

The police commissioner also said a suspect, one Segun Bolatito Akande, was nabbed for selling a stolen sienna bus.

It was a gory sight, last night, when the suspects displayed the human parts at the police headquarters, as the stench from the rotten human parts littered the air.

Saturday Vanguard reliably gathered that the suspect, who is notorious for dealing in human parts had been arrested several times in the past and released by the police.

The suspect was also said to have bought brand new Sienna bus last Thursday where his friends were gathered in the house to pray and celebrate with him.

The building where the couple live and operate the human parts business has been pulled down by security officers.

Other suspects who claim to be tenants, also live in that house.

DELTA SOUTH PRIMARY: Four APC senatorial aspirants protest exclusion

By Godwin Oritshe

FOUR All Progressive Congress, APC, senatorial aspirants in Delta South have kicked against their exclusion from the primary without reason despite meeting all the requirements and urged the party's hierarchy to address the problem, urgently.

The aspirants, Temisan Omatseye, High Chief Michael Johnny, Evans Omatsoguwa, and AVM Omatsola Okorodudu, retd, in a statement, yesterday, dismissed the Delta South senatorial primary as a sham. Noting that they paid the sum of N7million being the cost for the Expression of Interest and Nomination forms, picked and filled nomination forms and followed every process before embarking on electioneering campaign, they decried the exclusion from the primary.

The statement read in part "We the undersigned, being members of the All Progressives Congress and having paid the seven million naira being cost of expression of interest and nomination forms to contest for the Delta South Senatorial District would like to draw the attention of the President, Federal Republic of Nigeria, members of the APC worldwide and Nigerians at large on the unfortunate incident that is happening in our party most especially as relates to the recent conducted scam called senatorial primary that took place in Oleh, Delta State.

APC reads riot act to Gov. Yari, d

By Omeiza Ajayi, Abuja

THE National Working Committee NWC of the All Progressives Congress APC has expelled the Party executives in Zamfara State at all levels. "By this decision all supposed Party factions in Zamfara State stand dissolved", the party said in a statement by its acting spokesman, Yekini Nabena.

This was as the party warned the state Governor, Abdulaziz Yari to steer clear of the Primaries in the state.

The statement added that the NCC-inaugurated committee for Zamfara State is to conduct the Governorship and Legislative primaries in the State. Hence, the Zamfara State Governor, H. Alh. Abdul'aziz Abubakar Yari and the dissolved executives in the state should not interfere in the primary elections in the State. The Governorship and legislative primaries will hold from Sunday, October 5, 2014.
