

Hit-and-run driver kills NDLEA officer in Jigawa

A hit-and-run driver has killed one Mr. Ogbennewo Oluwanifemi, an officer of National Drug Law Enforcement Agency, NDLEA, Jigawa Command.

Mr. Ankeli Adah, Public Relations Officer of the Command, announced this in a statement yesterday, in Dutse.

Adah said Oluwanifemi was knocked down on October 29 at about 6:30p.m., while on duty around Beguwa-Ringim Highway in the state.

He said until his demise, the deceased was a Senior Narcotic agent attached to Ringim Area Command of NDLEA.

The spokesperson further stated that the agency was making effort to fish out the perpetrator of the act and bring him or her to book.

Adah described the late Oluwanifemi as a dedicated and committed officer.

He said the deceased left behind his aged mother, four brothers, one sister and an expectant wife.
