

Police officer found dead inside borrow pit in Delta

ON NOVEMBER 6, 2018 2:30 PMIN NEWS0 COMMENTS

By Emma Amaize

ASABA – A 51-year-old Inspector of Police attached to 22 Police Mobile Force, PMF, Lagos, Samuel Onwuerigho, was found dead in a borrow pit, along Ekwuoma Road, Owerri Olubo in Delta State.

Police

How he ended up in a borrow pit was uncertain, last night, but his wife, Mrs Joy Onwuerigho, reportedly told a family member that her husband left their Dominion Estate, Iyanu-Iyesi, Sango, Ogun state home on September 13 without informing her.

A relative, Joel Obuseh, also reported at Galilee Division in Delta state that the deceased passed through his Owerri Olubo house at about 1.00 am on September 14 and told him he was on his way to Ubulu Uku, a nearby village.

Obuseh told the police that Onwuerigho's wife also called him on phone disclosing that her husband left home without informing her.

The wife, who still did not hear from him almost a week after, proceeded, September 20. in search of him, having heard that he was sighted in the village