

Aluu bloodbath

2 In separate attacks on Aluu community, November 16 and 17, hoodlums yet again killed over four people. The gunmen stormed Omuike and boundary communities in Aluu after a popular wrestling festival in the area and killed the victims.

The police, however, said it had mobilised and restored peace in the area vowing to stamp out crime in the local government.