Again Boko Haram attacks Borno village

By Ndahi Marama, Maiduguri

SUSPECTED members of the Boko Haram group yesterday again attacked Jakana village of Borno state.

The incident, according to sources, started at about 6:30pm on Friday, but security forces were able to repel the attack.

This attack came barely 24 hours after they struck in Bama and Kala Balge Local Government areas of the state which led to loss of lives and destruction of property.

Jakana is about 45kms drive to Maiduguri along Kano- Damaturu- Maiduguri road.

Two days ago, concerned citizens raised an alarm of the presence of suspected armed terrorists around the surrounding communities between Jakana and Beneshiekh Council area, with no positive response. There was no official confirmation yet of the attacks from the security forces at press time.
